The nest is in a birdhouse that needs to be cleaned out for future residents or winter use. The nest is in a dangerous location and brooding birds could become stressed or injured. In most cases, it is only after the nesting season has ended and the birds have moved on that nests can and should be removed.

When Is Removing Birds Nests Okay? - The Spruce

The nest is formed gradually from chewed up wood and saliva. So in spring it will be the size of a golf ball. The nest will house the queen wasp and a small number of workers. By summer the nest can be large enough to home thousands of wasps and will be the size of a football.
