A Curse So Dark and Lonely is my first book by Brigid Kemmerer and it was a positively beautiful and amazing read. I pretty much love any kind of Beauty and the Beast retelling and Brigid's is bound to be a favorite for a long time! It uniquely combines fantasy world with our modern real world and I just love that kind of combination.

I absolutely loved this book. Especially for the fact that it had very minimal sexual themes (no sex- besides implication that a character had previously done it with someone, but no description for that, one kiss and some vague thoughts, one side gay character), and focused much more on the amazing fantasy world and the political situation (their magical kingdom is going to war and they have ...
