Eventually these companies manufactured boxed mixes [Baking mixes were introduced in the late 1940s] for banana nut bread/muffins. Modern banana bread recipes, featuring mashed bananas, first surfaced in the 1930s. They assumed traditional forms (layer cakes, muffins, loaves) and were classified as quick bread, tea cake, or dessert.

These cupcakes are great as long as you eat them the day they are baked - tend to dry out quite a bit overnight. Also, if you want the cupcakes to have the classic red velvet color you will need to double the amount of food coloring called for in the recipe. Cream cheese frosting was the best part and turned out great.
