The Mineola Twins

The story satirically examines women's experience and the women's movement over more than three decades in post-World War II America, as seen through the life of identical twins, Myra and Myrna, from Mineola, New York, who are played by one actress. The twins' contrasting personalities are presented in often extreme and comic ways.

The Mineola Twins, a CurtainUp review

"The political and cultural divides of American life are roundly decried even as they are exuberantly spoofed in Paula Vogel's THE MINEOLA TWINS, a bright cartoon of a play...Vogel's text is...like The Carol Burnett Show with a political consciousness....its go-for-broke adventurousness is endearing, and it's...divinely funny." —Variety. "...floating above the ostensible story of twin sisters who take opposite paths in life is an allegory of the last half century of our crazed ...
