Large and juicy shrimp are simmered in a hearty sauce, infused with garlic, thyme, ginger and curry spice. Speaking of curry spice, if you haven't made my awesome homemade curry spice here then you are missing out - seriously. Store-bought curry pales in comparison to homemade. So take some time and give it a try and tell me what you think.

Yet in my never-ending quest for perfection (which, in case my cookbook recipe testing and editing didn't make obvious, is a habit of mine), I discovered the critical trick: add 1 cup of oats after the initial blending and let it sit in the batter for 10 minutes. This allows the oats to soften into a superior, fluffy texture.
